Local Author Pens Book About Mom!

A story of woman who raised her 16 children in the heart of San Jose and chronicling over 100 years of California history; includes immigrations from the old countries of Chile, Spain, and Italy.

"Herstory" exemplifies true mastery of family, love, and legacy.

Mom's days were long with little sleep and on her feet most nights making sure each child's needs were tended to.

The author, Cagle, is child no. 13. "The Baker's Dozen." Mom is now 93 years young and counts God's blessings.

This event is extra special because not only will you meet the author, you will get your book signed to you and your mom by the author.
